

General Funding

Funder	Who they are	Current and previous funding	Website
Anglo American Group Foundation	The Foundation funds projects in countries with Anglo-American links-be it projects/programmes or representative offices.	Type of projects funded: Environment; education and training; community development; HIV/AIDS and welfare. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Countries: UK, Chile, Peru, India, Mozambique, Brazil, Colombia, China, Mongolia, Zimbabwe 	http://www.angloamericangroupfoundation.org/whowesupport/funding-criteria.aspx
Chrysalis Trust	The trust supports local projects in the North East of England only, national organisations providing support across the UK and international charities registered in the UK.	Types of projects funded: relief of poverty and disability; provision of access to shelter; education; healthcare and water related projects. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Countries: worldwide • Grant range: £1000 - £20000 • Closing date: 15 May 2017 	http://www.chrysalis-trust.co.uk/apply.php
Comic Relief	A major UK charity, working to tackle poverty both in-country and worldwide.	They fund projects that aim to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase the uptake of primary healthcare services • Improve quality of primary healthcare and increase retention and attainment • Improve access to good quality, relevant, non – formal education and training 	http://www.comicrelief.com/our-grants/international
The Scottish Government	Government Body	They support Scotland-based NGOs working overseas. Recently they funded a range of development projects in Malawi, India and Tanzania.	http://www.gov.scot/Topics/International/int-dev/fundingopportunities
Grand Challenges Canada: Transition to Scale	Supports bold ideas with Big Impact in global health.	Type of projects funded: Grand Challenges Canada seeks bold ideas for products, services and implementation models that could transform how persistent challenges in reproductive, maternal, newborn and child health are addressed in low- and middle-income countries. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Countries: worldwide (see request for proposals for a full list of eligible countries) • Grant range: $100,000 to $500,000 	http://www.grandchallenges.ca/funding-opportunities/
Charles Heywood Foundation	Grant making charitable trust, awarding grants to charities that are registered in the UK.	Generally fund initiatives tailored to individual needs and local situations involving families and communities; these can be designed and delivered in partnership. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Countries: Commonwealth countries in Africa • Average grant range: Projects over 1 to 3 years with grants of £15,000 – £25,000 per annum. They may invest up to £25,000 in a pilot project, if it 	http://www.charleshaywardfoundation.org.uk/overseas/addresses complex problems in an innovative way and may lead to replication if proven effective.

The Rotary Fund	The Rotary Foundation helps fund humanitarian activities, from local service projects to global initiatives.	They fund development and humanitarian projects with a focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promoting Peace • Fighting Disease • Providing clean water • Saving Mothers and children • Growing local economies 	https://www.rotary.org/en/search/all/grants%2B
The University of Chicago – Centre for Global Health	The University’s mission is to collaborate with communities locally and globally to democratize education, increase service learning opportunities, and advance novel, transdisciplinary, and sustainable solutions to improve health and well-being while reducing global health disparities and inequities.	The university’s global health department lists a number of government agencies, organizations and trust that award funding to global health related projects.	https://cgh.uchicago.edu/page/funding-agencies-global-health-opportunities
BOND	Bond is a UK membership body for organisations working in international development. They have over 450 members ranging from large agencies with a world-wide presence to smaller, specialist organisations.	A list of funding opportunities provided by Bond’s members and other institutions is available on BOND’s website.	https://www.bond.org.uk/hubs/funding-opportunities
IZUMI Foundation	IZUMI foundation seeks to improve the health outcomes of people living in the most impoverished areas of Africa, Latin American, and the Caribbean.	Type of projects funded: Infectious disease, neglected tropical diseases, malnutrition, maternal and neonatal health, health care infrastructure initiatives. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Countries: Botswana, Burkina Faso, Ethiopia, Gambia, Ghana, Kenya, Lesotho, Madagascar, Malawi, Mali, Mozambique, Namibia, Niger, Nigeria, Rwanda, Senegal, South Africa, Swaziland, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia, Bolivia, El Salvador, Guatemala, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua and Paraguay • Average grant size: between $45,000 and $100,000 over 1 to 3 years • Closing date: Letters of Inquiry accepted April – June 	http://izumi.org/funding-grants/how-to-apply-online/

The James Tudor Foundation	A charitable company established to relief sickness in the UK and worldwide.	The Foundation awards grants over five main funding areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Palliative care • Medical research • Health education • Relief of sickness • Overseas projects for the relief of sickness, undertaken by UK registered charities The Foundation may receive applications that do not neatly fit into one of the five programmes areas but which do meet the requirement of the relief of sickness.	http://www.jamestudor.org.uk/our-grants1
-----------------------------------	--	---	---

Specialised funding opportunities

Funder	Who they are	Current and previous funding	Website
Viiv Healthcare	Focused on finding new medicines to improve outcomes for people living with HIV and understanding how best to prevent and treat the disease.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HIV/AIDS: prevention, testing and care. • HIV/AIDS: prevention mother-to-child transmission. • Support global efforts to alleviate the impact of HIV/AIDS. 	https://www.viivhealthcare.com/community-partnerships.aspx
BMA Humanitarian Fund	The BMA Humanitarian Fund is designed to support and encourage the development of new initiatives, to help teams undertaking humanitarian projects.	Projects must offer clear health benefits to the local population, must involve at least one current NHS employee and should have a sustainable impact.	https://www.bma.org.uk/humanitarianfund
Disability Rights Fund	The Disability Rights Fund is a grant making collaborative that provides grants to disabled persons' organisations (DPOs) to strengthen their participation in the advancement of human rights of persons with disabilities.	Since 2008, the Disability Rights Fund and its sister organisation, the Disability Rights Advocacy Fund have funded disabled persons' organisations across the developing world to participate in CRPD ratification, implementation, and monitoring.	http://www.disabilityrightsfund.org/for-grantseekers/
The Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Trust	A charitable foundation established in 2012. Their mission is to enrich the lives of people from all backgrounds	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prevention of avoidable blindness and strengthen the eye healthcare sector as a whole. 	http://www.jubileetribute.org/about-the-trust within the Commonwealth, by eliminating avoidable blindness and empowering a new generation of young leaders.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Queen's Young Leaders programme helps transform the lives of young people through Awards to individuals and grants to youth-led and focused organisations.

--	---	--	--

Research Funding

Funder	Who they are	Current and previous funding	Website
King's Health Partners	Academic Health Science Centre where world-class research, education and clinical practice are brought together for the benefit of patients.	The King's Health Partners Research and Development Challenge Fund aims to support researchers from across our partners to explore and develop innovative ideas that may lead to new discoveries, therapies or diagnostics with the potential to transform human health. The Fund is designed to help researchers develop an evidence-base sufficient to enable them to apply for more substantial funding from established bodies such as the Medical Research Council or the Wellcome Trust.	http://www.kingshealthpartners.org/research/funding-opportunities
Medical Research Council	Research institution	Research projects that provide evidence on how to strengthen and improve health systems for people living in low- and middle-income countries. Focus on six main science areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Infections & immunity Molecular & cellular medicine Neurosciences & mental health Population & systems medicine Global health Translation 	https://www.mrc.ac.uk/funding/
National Institutes of Health	NIH's mission is to seek fundamental knowledge about the nature and behaviour of living systems and the application of that knowledge to enhance health, lengthen life, and reduce illness and disability.	NIH supports Research Training and Career Development programs to help prepare individuals for careers in biomedical, behavioural, social, and clinical research. NIH offers funding for many types of grants, contracts, and even programs that help repay loans for researchers.	https://www.nih.gov/grants-funding

Fogarty International Center	The Fogarty International Center is dedicated to advancing the mission of the National Institutes of Health by supporting and facilitating global health research conducted by U.S. and international investigators, building partnerships between health research institutions in the U.S. and abroad, and training the next generation of scientists to address global health needs.	The Fogarty International Center at NIH offers a variety of funding opportunities to support the field of global health research. Fogarty also offers a variety of resources for those seeking global health research funding across NIH, and from other organisations.	https://www.fic.nih.gov/Funding/Pages/default.aspx
Medical Research Council	The Medical Research Council supports research across the entire spectrum of medical sciences, in universities and hospitals, including units, centers and institutes in the UK.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Projects funded: Public health initiatives. • Countries: global • Grant size: Applicants can apply for up to £150,000 for a maximum of 18 months. • Closing date: 12th July 2016 16:00 GMT+1 	https://www.mrc.ac.uk/funding/browse/public-health-intervention-development-scheme/public-health-intervention-development-scheme-phind/
International Development Research Centre	They look for innovative proposals with the potential to be scaled up to improve more lives in developing countries.	Projects funded: IDRC offer grants, funding, and awards to researchers and institutions to search for answers to global development challenges in the following areas; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • reduce poverty and inequity • promote employment and growth • help communities guard against climate impacts • encourage good governance and build strong policies • provide healthy futures for mothers and babies • leverage technology and innovation for growth 	https://www.idrc.ca/en/funding